

Open ERP

Open Source Management Software

Open ERP implementation has provided success to the bicycle production and sales company, who were in need of a system to manage the clients, stock, products, orders and manufacturing jobs. The company has installed and tested, numerous open source system and finally found out the most suited system "Open ERP", which solved their problems efficiently.

Open ERP provided the needed module, in terms of product database, stock maintenance; purchase management, connection to web shop, clients .The future implementation encompasses dealer portal, production management, full financial management & reporting.

The company is looking for an adaptive measures to install chart of accounts for the Netherlands,use product electronic

Bicycle production and sales company

(to calculate cost prices based on materials used in BOMS) , use sale margin to report margin on sales orders on the fly ,use sale _tax _include to make orders with taxes included. The promising support led by Open ERP makes it completely adaptable to the management of sales and purchases as well as stocks. With Open ERP, all their commercial processes are done in an efficient way.